THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC.

The closing of the liquor saloons on Saturday last, on account of its being election day, suggests a few reflections which may be considered as pertinent. To a stranger just arrived in the country, it would naturally excite a good many questions, to be told that by the laws of the country the keepers of these saloons, and everybody else, are strictly forbidden to sell, give or furnish any intoxicating drink to native Hawaiians at any time, and that as a rule, the law is faithfully observed by the saloon keepers and the great majority of foreigners. The first question asked by the innocent stranger would be, If the natives cannot get liquor, why then close the saloons? It would be difficult to frame a satisfactory answer. Perhaps it is thought best to "assume a virtue, if you have it not."

The fact is admitted that, notwithstanding the law, the natives can get as much liquor as they are able to pay for, and not from the liquor saloons either. This is illustrated, particularly on Sundays, when all liquor establishments are, we are assured, faithfully kept closed. It is next to an impossibility for a foreigner to buy a bottle of liquor on that day, but it is well known that a native with money can obtain it without any trouble. Instances, we are told, are not infrequent of foreigners employing natives to get their supplies of liquor on Sundays.

Good and salutary laws are out of place on the statute books, if they are constantly and notoriously broken. In order to secure the strict and honest enforcement of any penal law,—like those under consideration, for instance, respecting the liquor traffic and Sunday observance—it must have the backing of a solid, intelligent public opinion.

The Annual Election of Engineers of the Honolulu Fire Department takes place this evening at the Hall of Engine Co. No. 2.

NOTWITHSTANDING the liquor saloons were closed on Saturday, it was evident early in the day that "the spirits" were making their influence felt on quite a number of natives in and about the Government House. Of course, they bought the aforesaid spirits at the saloons the day before!

THE LEGISLATURE

Did not sit on Saturday, having adjourned over from Friday until Monday, Saturday being an off day anyhow; and besides the election for a Representative took place in the Hall of Aliolani Hale. But Honorable members took advantage of the interregnum to visit the Insane Asylum, the Reformatory School and Oahu Prison. The "train" consisted of some fifteen hacks, filled with legislators—who appeared to be in exuberant spirits—and a number of attachees. It was stated that there was to be a grand lune somewhere in the evening, but not having been favored with particulars, (including an invitation to be present) we are unable to report thereon.

LATE FOREIGN NEWS.

The Dublin assassins had been found and arrested, but subsequently escaped from jail; and the report was circulated, May 18th at Dublin, that they had escaped in the garbs of priests, and were then on their way to the United States.

On board the steamer Altnower, in San Francisco harbor, there was 63 cases of small-pox among the coolies, and some of the ship's crew had been stricken down. Hongkong was to be declared an infected port, and all vessels thence ordered into quarantine.

The Anti-Chinese movement gathers strength in San Francisco. Employers of the labor were giving notice that they would have no Chinese.

Russia finds that the Anti-Jewish movement has cost her over one millions of dollars.

The Alta reports Hawaiian sugar at from 6½ to 8½ cents.

The barkentine Ella, arrived this morning, brings San Francisco dates to May 19. We glean a few items of news, which however, is not of startling importance.

7,608 packages of sugar have come to hand since Saturday morning.

The brigantine Vesta arrived last Saturday afternoon from New Castle, N.S.W. She brings a cargo of coal to Messrs. T. H. Davies & Co.

The steamer City of New York is due to-day from the Colonies en route to San Francisco.

The Consuelo, Forest Queen and Jane A Falkenberg were up for this port when the Ella left.

The Falkenberg was to sail the day after the Ella.

Mr. H. L. SHELDON, Editor "DAILY BULLETIN":—Will you reprint from the Friend of yesterday, an article on page 60, "Sabbath Observance," and call attention to it, as a timely admonition from one who has the best interests of the Hawaiian People at heart. I trust the select committee to whom the subject has been referred, will give wise counsel in their report to the Legislative Assembly.

"Late papers from the coast inform us that the people of the State of California, are determined to enforce a wholesome Sabbath Law, which closes all places of business and public amusement. This is a step forward and not backward. A similar effort is now being made in many of the Eastern States, and it is with no moderate degree of surprise and shame that, we notice an effort on the part of our legislators to break down our Sabbath Laws and open places of amusement on the Holy Sabbath. We hope there is good sense and principle sufficient among the members of the Legislature to frown down such a project to legalize wickedness. We call upon all good people of every sect and creed to put their faces like a flint against this project on the part of some to trample upon God's command to 'Remember the Sabbath and keep it holy.' Sabbath-breaking, rum-selling and vice of all kinds belong to the same class of defiant and overt acts of wickedness tending to demoralize the community and bring down the displeasure of Heaven. Now is the time for virtuous women and good men to speak out and shame down these men who would open the flood gates of sin and impurity, crime and licentiousness upon our island community. We cannot imagine that a majority of our Legislators are prepared to sanction a measure fraught with such untold evils. With free rum, free opium, free Sabbath, and what are we coming to? Ye fathers and mothers of families! Ye pure and virtuous women! Ye correct men, young and old, now speak out, and speak to those who sit in our Legislative Hall and there would legalize sin, encourage crime, defy the authority of Heaven!"

ATTENTION is called to an advertisement in to-day's issue, calling for tenders for the construction of the new building for the Y.M.C.A.

The steamer Likelike brought 2,100 packages of sugar and 50,000 shingles.

It sounds a little odd to report the receipt at Honolulu of fifty thousand shingles, coastwise from Mahukona. They were brought on the steamer Likelike, which arrived yesterday.

THERE was a large crowd of visitors on board H.B.M.S. Champion yesterday.

MR. JAMES KEAU was elected a member of the Assembly for Honolulu on Saturday, by a considerable majority.

The barkentine W. H. Dimond, Capt. Houdlett, sailed from Kahu-lu on the 1st inst. for San Francisco, taking 10,534 bags of sugar weighing 1,363,377 pounds, value $89,626.89, and the following passengers: S. T. Alexander, wife and 5 children, L. A. Andrews, D. Oliver, J. P. Smith, W. E. McDermott, and 9 in the steerage.
